

Persistently Dangerous Schools Policy

In accordance with federal and state law, scholars who are residents of schools designated as persistently dangerous or victims of violent criminal offenses while in or on the grounds of the school that the scholar attends shall be allowed to attend a safe school within the District. Since Capstone Classical Academy is not, nor has ever been, designated as persistently dangerous, and has only one campus, this policy does not currently apply to Capstone.

See Utah Code R277-483