Ogden-Weber Technical College Participation Policy and Acknowledgment

Capstone Classical Academy permits scholars to attend Ogden-Weber Technical College (OWTC) for the purpose of fulfilling the graduation requirements of having a Technology Program certificate. In order to participate the following requirements must be meet:

- Scholars have reviewed their Ad Vitam with the counseling department and meet the credit requirements for graduation.
- None of the scholar's classes are in Not Yet status.
- Parent(s)/guardian(s) and scholars have communicated with the counseling department and gone through the proper channels to enroll in OWTC classes.
- Students have communicated their schedule to the counseling department, Director and front office via this form.
- Scholars may leave Capstone Classical Academy's campus no more than 30 minutes prior to their class starting.
- Scholars understand that the high standards of Capstone Classical translate to behavior while off campus, and that he or she is an ambassador from Capstone. Therefore, behavior should be professional at all times.

Capstone Classical Academy reserves the right to deny the scholar continued participation in OWTC programs if the scholar begins to fall behind in their academy work and credits. Notification will be provided in writing to the parents and scholar.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the requirements stated in the Capstone Classical Academy Ogden-Weber Technical College Participation Policy, and agree to adhere to Academy standards. I also understand that at any time, Capstone Classical Academy's Director can deny my participation in OWTC program.
